They are NOT !! They are just progressing, getting a bit older and becoming conscious that if they want to stay, they have to conquer all the metal maniacs, not just the hardcore ones.

I'm sure all the so-called speed metal bands will do the same thing in their time. Anyway, I much prefer a band which moves like METALLICA than, say, EXCITER which write always the same song.

Hope you get my po view ...

Well, next time, I hope I'll get a whole bunch of new French demos and live tapes for you. Well, alright, DEATH'S ANGELS are rather bad but I think MYSTERY BLUE are good at what they do.

They aren't fast or something, but do have some good songs, and some heavy ones. They have already supported MOTORHEAD in Strasbourg and it seems they did very well.

Hey, do you have any fanzines with EXODUS features in them? If yes, please send me photocopies of these features as I'm really interested in any EXODUS stuff. Thanks.

Next time, could you please send me:

find out the correct thing.
Thanks.
